COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, MuniAuction, Inc. ("MuniAuction"), complains of defendant Thomson Corporation v/d/b/a Thomson Financial and/or Thomson Financial Municipals Group, as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This is a claim for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 271. This Court has exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a).

1. Plaintiff, MuniAuction, Inc. ("MuniAuction") is a corporation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania having its corporate headquarters and main place of business located at Allegheny Building, Suite 1800, 429 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15219. On December 12, 2000, United States Patent No. 6,161,099 ("the '099 patent") was duly, properly, legally issued to Myles C.S. Harrington, et al., and assigned to MuniAuction. A true and correct copy of the '099 patent is attached as Exhibit A hereto.

2. MuniAuction owns the full and exclusive right, title and interest in the '099 patent.

including the right to bring suit and collect for any past or future damages for infringement of the patents.

3. For the reasons stated above, MuniAuction has standing to sue for infringement of the patent in suit.

4. Upon information and belief, the defendant, Thomson Corporation, is a corporation of the province of Ontario having a principal place of business in the United States at One Station Place, Stamford, Connecticut 06902.

5. Upon information and belief, defendant Thomson Corporation trades and does business as (a) Thomson Financial, with Thomson Financial having a chief executive office at 290 Harbor Drive, First Floor, Stamford, Connecticut 06902; and (b) Thomson Financial Municipals Group, with Thomson Financial Municipals Group having a principal place of business at 395 Hudson Street, 3rd Floor, New York, New York 10014. Thomson Corporation, Thomson Financial and Thomson Financial Municipals Group shall be referred to herein collectively as "Thomson."

6. Defendant transacts business in this judicial district by advertising, promoting, offering to sell and selling products and services to customers located in this judicial district and by conducting other business within this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States.

7. Venue, therefore, is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) and § 1391(b) since a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in this judicial district.

PATENT INFRINGEMENT

8. Defendant has infringed the '099 patent, either directly or through acts of contributory infringement or inducement in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

9. Defendant's infringement has occurred at least through the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale, of a process and apparatus for conducting auctions, specifically bond auctions, over electronic networks, that infringes claims of the '099 patent. Defendant has also intentionally induced and contributed to the infringement of others with full notice and knowledge of the '099 patent.

10. In May 1997, MuniAuction began displaying a "patent pending" notice on its Internet website, which Internet website utilizes the process and apparatus disclosed by the '099 patent.

11. Defendant's infringement has been willful and deliberate.

12. The infringement of the '099 patent alleged above has injured MuniAuction and, thus, MuniAuction is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for defendant's infringement, which in no event can be less than a reasonable royalty.

WHEREFORE, MuniAuction respectfully demands judgment against defendant, and against its subsidiaries, affiliates and related companies, as follows:

A. An award of damages adequate to compensate Plaintiff for the patent infringement that has occurred, together with prejudgment interest and costs;

B. All other damages permitted by 35 U.S.C. § 284, including increased damages up to three times the amount of compensatory damages found;

C. A finding that this case is exceptional and an award to Plaintiff of its reasonable attorneys' fees as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285;

D. An injunction against Thomson enjoining it, its employees, agents, attorneys, and privies, and all those in active concert or participation therewith, from the continued infringement of the '099 patent, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

E. Such other and further relief as this Court or a jury may deem proper and just.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the 7th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, MuniAuction demands a trial by jury of all issues triable as of right by jury in the above action.

C.A. No. 01 1003

Hon. Judge Gary Lee Lancaster

AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, MuniAuction, Inc. d/b/a Grant Street Group ("MuniAuction"), complains of defendants, Thomson Corporation t/d/b/a Thomson Financial and/or Thomson Financial Municipals Group, and i-Deal, LLC ("i-Deal") as follows:

JURISDICTION

This is a claim for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. § 271. This Court has exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a).

PARTIES

1. MuniAuction Inc. d/b/a Grant Street Group ("MuniAuction") is a corporation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania having its corporate headquarters and principle place of business located at Allegheny Building, Suite 1800, 429 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15219. MuniAuction owns and has standing to sue for the infringement of United States Patent 6,161,099

("the '099 Patent") entitled Process and Apparatus for Conducting Auctions Over Electronic Networks. A true and correct copy of the cover of the '099 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

2. The '099 Patent was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on December 12, 2000.

3. MuniAuction owns the full and exclusive right, title and interest in the '099 patent, including the right to bring suit and collect for any past or future damages for infringement of the patent.

4. Defendant Thomson Corporation, is a corporation of the province of Ontario having a principal place of business in the United States at One Station Place, Stamford, Connecticut 06902.

5. Defendant Thomson Corporation trades and does business as (a) Thomson Financial, with Thomson Financial having a chief executive office at 290 Harbor Drive, First Floor, Stamford, Connecticut 06902; and (b) Thomson Financial Municipals Group, with Thomson Financial Municipals Group having a principal place of business at 395 Hudson Street, 3rd Floor, New York, New York 10014. Thomson Corporation, Thomson Financial and Thomson Financial Municipals Group shall be referred to herein collectively as "Thomson."

6. Defendant i-Deal is a Delaware corporation having a principal place of business at 40 West 23rd Street, 5th Floor, New York, New York 10010.

VENUE

7. Each of the defendants transacts business in this judicial district by advertising, promoting, offering to sell and selling products and services to customers located in this judicial district and by conducting other business within this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States.

8. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) and §1391(b) and (c) since a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred in this judicial district.

PATENT INFRINGEMENT

9. Defendants have infringed the '099 patent, either directly or through acts of contributory infringement or inducement in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

10. Each defendant's infringement has occurred at least through the manufacture, use, sale, offer for sale, of a process and apparatus for conducting auctions, such as bond auctions, over electronic networks that infringes claims of the '099 patent. Each defendant has also intentionally induced and contributed to the infringement of others with full notice and knowledge of the '099 patent.

11. In May 1997, MuniAuction began displaying a "patent pending" notice on its Internet web site, which Internet web site utilizes the process and apparatus disclosed by the '099 patent.

12. Each of the defendants have been aware of U.S. Patent No. 6,161,099 and have, nonetheless, infringed that patent with knowledge of the patent's scope and application to each defendants' auction system. As a consequence, defendants' infringement has been willful and deliberate.

13. The infringement of the '099 patent alleged above has injured MuniAuction and, thus, MuniAuction is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for defendant's infringement, which in no event can be less than a reasonable royalty.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, MuniAuction respectfully demands judgment against each defendant, and against its subsidiaries, affiliates and related companies, as follows:

- A. An award of damages adequate to compensate Plaintiff for the patent infringement that has occurred, together with prejudgment interest and costs;
- B. All other damages permitted by 35 U.S.C. § 284, including increased damages up to three times the amount of compensatory damages found;
- C. A finding that this case is exceptional and an award to Plaintiff of its reasonable attorneys' fees as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285;
- D. An injunction against each defendant enjoining it, its employees, agents, attorneys, and privies, and all those in active concert or participation therewith, from the continued infringement of the '099 patent, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §283.
- E. Such other and further relief as this Court or a jury may deem proper and just.

JURY DEMAND

MuniAuction demands a trial by jury of all issues presented in this Complaint.
